

Innovation Combined with Initiative Speeds Your Time to Market

The competitive advantage you've been searching for begins with our dedicated team of proactive, collaborative professionals working toward a common goal: Your Success.

OurSourcing™ is outsourcing transformed. Your success is made possible by a talented team of problem solvers, innovators and implementers who understand the value of shared missions, visions and values.

Shared Vision and Goals

Your goal is to release a high quality software product. We share that goal. OurSourcing™ is a collective commitment to success that transcends simple "bug hunting" and makes significant contributions toward achieving your objectives. As your OurSourcing™ partner, Shasta QA works tirelessly to help you get to market faster and enhance client satisfaction while staying within your timeline and budget.

Winning Teams
Meet Every Challenge.
Together.

| Your OurSourcing™ Partner | An Outsourced Vendor |
|---|--|
| Works proactively and makes valuable contributions to your success | Operates autonomously with its own priorities |
| Contributes value through drive, independent thought and initiative | Is task-minded, pursues its own objectives |
| Is adaptable to an ever-changing agile environment | Adheres to its "comfort zone" methodologies |
| Understands the value of teamwork | May not understand the value of collaboration |
| Has established industry QA experience | Has unknown QA experience |
| Shares your business norms and business day/time zone | May not share your time zone, which delays communication as much as twelve hours |
| Is open and honest in all interactions | May avoid open communication for fear of giving offense |
| Can easily visit you on location | May only offer a long distance relationship |
| Protects your physical and intellectual property | May expose your physical and intellectual property to risk |
| Becomes a valuable company asset | May put your company at a competitive disadvantage |

Develop a Valuable Competitive Advantage Through OurSourcing™

Gain a Valuable Competitive Advantage

With OurSourcing™, the barriers between internal and external resources are removed allowing software developers and QA engineers to work in unison to achieve a common goal. The constructive relationships developed between team members make it possible to anticipate problems and respond to them quickly. This alliance pays off in productivity, which transforms traditional outsourcing from compulsory need to a valuable competitive advantage.

Open, Honest Communication

There is value in knowing the true status of your project. As an extension of your team, an OurSourcing™ partner will provide you with consistent and accurate information throughout your project. From our first conversation to “code complete” we combine open communication with proven methodologies to deliver proven results.

Drive Your Project to Completion

Shasta QA is true to you and true to our team. Just as you believe in developing high quality products, we believe in developing high quality people who take ownership in your project. We foster a culture of collaborative innovation, which drives your project to completion more rapidly. OurSourcing™ is an investment in people and relationships. Accelerated time to market, quality software and an enhanced user experience are the natural products of this investment.
